QKSTAIR

1. Preliminary interrogation of the Bulgarian agent who was captured by the Bulgarian authorities but who managed to "escape" to Greece last week gives the following information:
 - (a) The agent was taken to Sofia, where he was subjected to interrogations which were mild in nature in spite of the fact that he was caught in a number of lies, and although he was confronted by one of our agents who defected to the Communists after being infiltrated last May. It is not yet possible to ascertain whether the agent actually "escaped" or whether he has become a "double agent" for the Bulgarian authorities.
 - (b) The above-mentioned defector has generally blown the German training facilities where he received his instruction, as well as the facilities in Greece through which he was staged prior to entering Bulgaria. The full extent of the disclosure is not yet determined, but on the basis of what is known so far [] as indicated that he sees no need to alter the installations which were revealed.
 - (c) The escaped agent noticed a considerable number of Russian soldiers in Bulgaria. In addition, he was informed that many Russians were moving toward the Yugoslav border.
